1. Core drill openings at least 12 inches from existing manhole joints.
2. Install flexible pipe coupler or pipe joint on new sanitary sewer 18 to 24 inches from outside of manhole wall.
3. Align elbow so discharge is directed at outlet pipe or at 45 degrees to manhole flow.
4. Reshape fillet to provide a smooth transition and to direct flow to outlet.